

Residence Life and Housing Contract

Summer 2025

GENERAL

This Contract is between the Student/Applicant named at the end of this agreement (“Student”) and the Regents of the University of Colorado, a body corporate, for and on behalf of the University of Colorado - Colorado Springs (“University”) regarding the terms and conditions of occupancy. NOTE: This Contract is for room, board, and parking in the University’s Residence Hall Facilities or room and parking only in the Apartment Facilities (collectively “Housing Facilities”) for the academic year listed above. The University’s Office of Residence Life and Housing (“Housing”) will assign the Student to housing in its Housing Facilities, and the Student is then entitled to use the Housing Facilities in accordance with the terms and conditions outlined below. The Student must also comply with all University policies, and federal, state, and local laws. This Contract may not be assigned to another party, and it is agreed and understood that this Contract is incorporated by reference into the Housing Application. There may be times when the Contract needs to be updated during the Contract term to reflect non-substantive changes in policy and procedure. If this occurs, the Student will be notified in writing of the specific change a minimum of two weeks prior to the change taking effect.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF CONTRACT PERIOD

This Contract becomes effective upon the Student’s submission of a Housing Application (“Application”) and shall remain in effect for the current academic year.

DEFERRAL

If Student has completed the housing application for the term of this Contract and finds that they can no longer enroll for the specified housing Contract term, Student may defer the application for up to one academic year without fee penalty. Any applicable application fees and deposits will be held and applied to the future term application. The Student will be required to digitally sign a new housing Contract for the deferral term if the deferral term falls outside of the preceding Contract period (Deferral to future Fall term rather than Spring term) before being permitted to take occupancy of room space. If Student does not enroll for the deferral term and/or is “no-show” for move-in, Student will forfeit application fees and deposits.

LENGTH OF CONTRACT

The terms of this Contract apply to the period selected on the Housing Application. This Contract will otherwise terminate by noon of the day after Summer semester final examinations have concluded, or on the date the student is no longer enrolled at the University, whichever comes first. Termination of the Contract due to non-enrollment does not excuse the student from the financial commitments of the Contract terms. If the Student has Contracted for Summer term and is residing in campus housing during the Spring term immediately preceding, then the Student may stay in the Spring semester assignment until the Student is notified that the Summer term assignment is available for occupancy. If the student is new to housing for Summer term, the student will be permitted to move into their housing assignment at 9 a.m. on the first day of the Summer Contract period and must move out of their Summer assignment by 5 p.m. on the last day of the Contract period, or 24 hours after their last final exam, whichever comes first. Summer term residents who are transitioning to a Fall term housing assignment will remain in their Summer assignment until notified by housing that their Fall assignment is ready for occupancy.

ELIGIBILITY

The Student must be accepted and enrolled as a degree seeking student at the University and maintain eligible status to live in the Housing Facilities during Summer term. To be eligible for Summer housing, a student must either A) be enrolled in Summer courses, or B) be registered for courses for the Fall term immediately following. Priority assignments will be given to full-time students unless the University decides there are exceptional circumstances to offer priority assignments otherwise. If the Student fails to maintain status as a registered student, the Student must notify Residence Life and Housing immediately upon such change in status. If the change in student status occurs after the Student has checked into the Housing Facilities, the Student must: 1) notify Residence Life and Housing via a Petition for Withdrawal and 2) move out within three days of the change in status unless the University approves other arrangements. (See also “Termination by the Student After Occupancy.”) Once the Student enrolls according to the eligibility requirements and is in good financial standing, the Student will be considered for a room assignment should space be available. It is the Student’s responsibility to contact Residence Life and Housing once all obligations have been satisfied for the room assignment to be considered.

CRIMINAL OR DISCIPLINARY HISTORY AND SEX OFFENSE.

Pursuant to the University’s Procedure for Applicants for Student Admission and Participation in Campus Life with Previous or Pending Criminal or Disciplinary History, prior or pending criminal and/or disciplinary conduct may make the Student ineligible to participate in campus life, including living in University Housing and subject the Student to University termination of this Contract pursuant to TERMINATION BY THE UNIVERSITY FOR STUDENT DEFAULT OR BREACH. If it comes to the University’s attention that the Student is a registered sex offender, the University will determine whether the Student is eligible to live in University Housing and subject the Student to potential University termination of this Contract pursuant to TERMINATION BY THE UNIVERSITY FOR STUDENT DEFAULT OR BREACH. If permitted to live in University Housing, the Student must comply with registration requirements mandated by state law, as well as register with the UCCS Police Department (“Police”). If the Student is convicted of a sex offense while living in University Housing, the Student must notify the Director of Residence Life of such conviction, and the University will determine whether the Student is eligible to remain in University Housing. If permitted, the Student must comply with any applicable sex offender registration requirements, including registering with Police.

ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOMMODATIONS

Students currently residing in any Housing Facility will have priority in the assignment process. All other students will be assigned upon the Student’s admission to the University and the date of receipt for this Contract, the Application, and deposit. Subject to the availability of space, the University will assign spaces according to the requested preferences on a nondiscriminatory basis. The University may make alternative assignment decisions based on the needs of an individual student and/or the University community. The University does not guarantee assignment to a particular building, type of accommodation, or with a particular roommate. Roommate requests are granted when: 1) space is available, 2) both parties request each other on their applications, and 3) both applications are received on or about the same date. Roommate requests made after the initial batch assigning process on April 1st are not guaranteed. The Student may contact UCCS Residence Life and Housing for an emergency roommate change request for health or safety concerns at any time. The University may assign or reassign accommodations for the benefit of an individual student or living unit, including the consolidation of single occupants residing in double occupancy rooms or based on University needs. If the Student is in a double occupancy room and the Student’s behavior causes other residents to request to move out, the University may charge the Student the rate for a single occupancy room assignment if the University cannot find replacement residents. The University’s assignment is final, and the Student cannot change the room assignment without the approval of Housing.

DINING SERVICES

Dining services meal plans are not required during the Summer term. Dining halls may be open on an intermittent basis to accommodate the needs of Summer conference attendees, but no regular Summer term dining hours will be scheduled. Summer term students will be assigned to Alpine Village apartments, which are equipped with full kitchens to accommodate meal preparation needs. Summer residents are welcome to utilize the dining halls at their own expense, when open, if they so desire, or purchase one of the available block plans to utilize while the dining halls are open.

USE OF FACILITIES

The Student must use the Housing Facilities in the manner for which they were designed. No University property, including room and lounge furnishings, may be moved within or removed from the Housing Facilities. Although the University respects the privacy of each student, the University may enter and inspect the Student’s room(s) at any time when the University deems it necessary to protect and maintain University property, to assure the safety of residents, and/or to facilitate the maintenance of discipline and an educational environment. The University may inspect the space with or without the Student’s presence. Whenever possible, the University will communicate entry intentions with the Student prior to the time of entry.

COMMERCIAL USE

The Student will not use the Housing Facilities for any commercial purpose, commercial solicitation, or commercial promotion, except by written authorization by Residence Life and Housing. The Student may not operate, advertise, provide revenue-generating services, or promote a private business from their room or any space within the Housing Facilities. Door-to-door solicitation of any kind is expressly prohibited. This provision also prohibits door-to-door charitable contribution collection of a monetary nature.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE

The University expects normal depreciation of the Housing Facilities and furnishings through natural usage. However, the Student agrees to be liable, and understands that the University will charge the Student for damage, or other loss incurred, to the Housing Facilities, including any building, furniture and equipment, that is a result of the Student's carelessness and/or misconduct. The University will assign responsibility for damage within a student room and/or suite to all students assigned to the room and/or suite unless individual responsibility is determined. The Student is also responsible for similar damage to public areas, including lobbies, lounges, stairwells, hallways, laundries, bathrooms, exercise rooms, basements, walkways, lawns and parking areas ("Public Areas") within the Student's assigned Housing Facility. The University will assign a charge for damage to a Public Area among the residents in the Housing Facility when it cannot be determined which individuals are responsible for the incident.

UNIVERSITY LIABILITY

The University is not responsible in any manner for theft, destruction, or loss of money, valuables, or other personal property belonging to, or in the custody of, the Student, regardless of cause. This includes losses that occur in or outside of the Housing Facilities, including the Student's room, storage room, Public Areas, or other areas of any Housing Facility. The University recommends that the Student obtain personal property insurance to cover such liabilities.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The Student must comply with all University policies, including the requirements set forth in the Student Code of Conduct as well as in the Residence Life and Housing Handbook. The Residence Life and Housing Handbook and the Student Code of Conduct are available at: <https://residence.uccs.edu/current-resident/policies>.

WEAPONS/FIREARMS

Possession of a firearm in any campus facility, including a Housing Facility, is prohibited. Residential students found in possession of a firearm on their person or within a Housing Facility may face repercussions up to and including the termination of their housing Contract and immediate removal from residential facilities, as well as any additional consequences from law enforcement.

ROOM/BOARD RATES

Current year room and board rates for Housing Facilities are listed online at <https://residence.uccs.edu/village-info>. Rates for all assignments are set by the Board of Regents (at a June meeting), and applicants will be informed of the new rates after that meeting.

DEPOSIT/ADVANCE PAYMENT

Effective Summer 2025 Forward: Students who are new to housing must submit a $300.00 fee/deposit at the time that the Student submits this signed Contract and Housing Application. The housing application will not be considered complete without submission of this payment. Checks must be made payable to the University of Colorado Colorado Springs. Of this $300.00, $100.00 is a nonrefundable application fee, and $200.00 will be held as a security deposit against damages. Students continuing to remain in housing through Summer from the Spring term immediately preceding will not be asked to pay any additional fees, and the damage deposit will continue to carry over to the Summer term.

PAYMENT OF HOUSING FEES/CHARGES

The Student agrees to pay all room and board fees and other properly billed charges as invoiced by the University, according to the current fee schedule at <https://residence.uccs.edu/>. Failure to pay will result in the University placing the Student's name in the University's debt file. The Student will then be prohibited from further enrollment, issuance of transcripts, and the Student will be withdrawn from the University. Failure to pay will also result in termination of this Contract by the University. (See also "Termination by the University.") The Student understands that the Student is applying for occupancy in University housing facilities and that the Student will be expected to pay, and will pay, for all room and board fees and other properly billed expenses. The Student hereby acknowledges and accepts full financial responsibility to pay for all room and board fees and other properly billed expenses, even if course modality of educational instruction (online, remote, hybrid, in-person) changes or circumstances result in modification, termination, or suspension of some services throughout the academic term. The Student agrees that this Agreement is for the Summer term only. Students wishing to secure housing for the academic year following this Contract term must complete a separate housing application for that Contract term.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Student is prohibited from creating a health or safety hazard within University housing and the University may request or require a resident to leave University housing if their continued presence in the housing community poses a health or safety risk for community members. Residential students are required to comply with health and safety laws, orders, ordinances, regulations and health and safety guidance adopted by the University or University Residence Life and Housing as it relates to public health crisis. The Student agrees that adherence to health and safety requirements applies to all residents, staff and visitors and extends to all aspects of residential life, including bedrooms, bathrooms, community kitchens, lounges, computer rooms, courtyards and other common spaces.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This Contract is subject to all relevant University policies, which may be amended or updated from time to time in the sole discretion of the University.

TERMINATION BY THE STUDENT BEFORE OCCUPANCY

If the Student wishes to terminate this Contract prior to moving into the Housing Facilities, then the Student must submit a cancellation request online at <https://residence.uccs.edu/>. Termination of this Contract prior to occupancy will result in the following:

- 1) For cancellations received prior to May 31, the new Student applicant will receive a refund of $200.00.
- 2) For cancellations received after June 1, the Student will receive no refund. This provision applies even when the Student submits the Contract and Housing Application after these dates. If the student wishes to defer their enrollment to the following academic year term Contract, the funds can be transferred to the academic year Contract term. Failure to occupy in accordance with the terms of the academic year Contract will result in the forfeiture of these fees.
- 3) For failure to move in as described below, the Student will receive no refund.

MOVE-IN

Summer term students are expected to take occupancy of their room space on the first date of the Summer Contract term. If the Student has requested a late move-in from Residence Life and Housing, the University will hold the Student's room for up to one additional week, beginning on the first day of the Contract term. Should the Student fail to notify Residence Life and Housing before the first day of the Contract term that the Student will not be moving into the Student's assigned room, then the Student will be additionally liable to the University for two weeks of housing charges for the Student's assigned room type.

TERMINATION BY THE STUDENT AFTER OCCUPANCY

If the Student terminates this Contract after occupancy, then the Student will forfeit the deposit in full. In order to request a partial refund of housing fees, the Student must complete and submit the official Petition for Termination of Contract ("Petition"). The University will approve the Student's Petition if it meets the criteria that the Petition sets forth. The Student can submit a Petition for the reasons outlined on the Housing Contract Petition page at <https://residence.uccs.edu/housing-application/cancellations/petition-to-terminate-housing-Contract>. If the University denies the Student's Petition, then the Student remains obligated under this Contract for full payment of housing fees. [Note: Suspension or expulsion from any Housing Facility or the University that is a result of a University sanction is not considered a valid reason for the Student terminating this Contract after occupancy.]

If the University approves the Student's Petition, then the Student must officially check out of the Housing Facilities in accordance with the checkout procedures described in the Resident Handbook. Charges will continue until the Student completes this official check out process. Final charges will be reflected on the Student's University account. If the Student checks out prior to the University approving the Petition, the Student is responsible for charges that occur from the time of check out until the Petition has been approved. In cases of withdrawal, it is the Student's responsibility to directly notify Residence Life and Housing that the Student has withdrawn from the University. The Petition for Withdrawal form for Residence Life and Housing can be found online at <https://residence.uccs.edu/> and must be completed when the Student withdraws from University classes. Once the withdrawal form is approved and the Student officially checks out of the Housing Facilities, then the student's housing fee will be prorated for any time spent in housing prior to withdrawal and move out.

Vacating Unless otherwise approved by UCCS Residence Life and Housing: If a student continues to stay and occupy the space, whether in person or with personal property, after the available period of occupancy for the semester or after termination of the Contract, UCCS Residence Life and Housing may charge the Student $100 per each day of occupancy, plus the daily rate of Room and Board for students who live in the residence halls. Following the date of termination or the last available period of occupancy for the semester, UCCS Residence Life and Housing reserves the right to restrict or prohibit the Student's access to the University Housing building and space. UCCS may charge students a reasonable charge in the event it must remove or pack up any items.

TERMINATION BY THE UNIVERSITY FOR STUDENT DEFAULT OR BREACH

The University may terminate or suspend this Contract if it is determined that: 1) the Student appears to be a danger to the safety, health, or well-being of the campus community; 2) the Student fails to make payment of charges as required by this Contract; 3) the Student has been subjected to disciplinary sanction through the Office of Student Conduct or Residence Life; 4) the Student is no longer eligible to live in housing; 5) the Student is charged or convicted of a crime or crimes against persons or involving any other conduct that may threaten the safety or security of other residents or disrupts the University's community or property; or 6) the Student breaches a term or condition of this Contract or University policies.

If the University terminates or suspends the Contract under this section, then the Student will forfeit the security deposit and will be obligated for the full amount of this Contract for the full Contract length. Nothing in this Contract shall limit the University in seeking additional remedies in law or equity for the Student's breach.

TERMINATION BY THE UNIVERSITY

In addition to the specific termination circumstances specified within this Contract, the University may immediately terminate or suspend this Contract to address or respond to extenuating circumstances that are beyond the reasonable control of the University or the Student and that materially affect the performance of any of their respective obligations under this Contract. Extenuating circumstances include, but are not limited to a declared local, state or national emergency, fire, flood, hurricane, tornado, pandemic – including Coronavirus (COVID-19), earthquake, other natural disaster, war, invasion, terrorist attack, hostilities, rebellion, insurrection, confiscation by order of the government, military or public authority, or prohibition or limitation on operation by any government order. Under such circumstances, Students are required to move out in a manner and time as reasonably determined and directed by the University under the circumstances. The University may also terminate this Contract without cause prior to the Student's occupancy for any reason with 60 days prior notice to the Student. If the University terminates this Contract pursuant to this section, the University may apply credits and/or refunds, as determined reasonable by the University in its sole discretion, to the impacted Student's account.
